Mission Flash # 19-08

Aug 25, 2008

Hartford Congregation
Makes a Dream Come True

In Mission Flash, 17-08, Dona reported about her visit to San Marcos, a Community of Christ congregation as part of her ministry trip to Nicaragua. In her story she shared about one of our newest congregations and what some of their hope and dreams are for the future of their congregation. One of the concerns shared by Pastor Manuel Martinez was the need for a roof to cover the yard, classroom, used by the children's classes. This area is exposed to the hot sun, weather and during the rainy season cannot be used by the children. The class numbers about 36 children and is taught by Manuel's 16 year old daughter.

The good news is that the Congregation in Hartford Connecticut responded to this need and has funded the construction of this project. With the approval of the Central American Mission Center President the support provided by the Hartford congregation was used for a new roof and a cement floor for the area the children use for classes. Thanks, Hartford.
