Greg and Becky Savage
Visit Downeast Maine
Addison, Maine

Following a week of reunion in Brooksville President Savage and her husband Greg enjoyed a few days of relaxation Downeast. This was their first visit to this part of the country so it was important for them to experience first hand what it is like to live and work along the Maine coast. On Saturday, John Church, of the Jonesport congregation, loaded Becky, Greg and Dona aboard his well cleaned boat for a fishing trip around the area. During the trip they helped haul lobster traps, and learned from John about different types of fish, crustaceans and other tips of the trade. Greg learned and was given the job of banding the lobster claws and in the process was bitten, the mark of a true fisherman... to be bitten by a lobster!

After a tour of the islands around Jonesport, John landed them on scenic Roque Island to tour the working family farm. The evening soon came where they were able to eat their catch in a traditional lobster feed at Sunnyside Farm!

On Sunday morning the four local congregations were invited to gather in Jonesport to hear President Savage share her testimony and her challenge to the congregations of Becoming Community!
